Grace for Today

SEPTEMBER 17, 2014—SEPTEMBER 30, 2014 • VOLUME 13, NO. 19

FALL, A TIME OF THANKFULNESS.....by Pastor Ken Gibson

Well it's here. Did it sneak up on you? Anyone notice the shortness of daylight the cooler nights and the feeling of acorns falling across the lawn? Yes, "Fall" is upon us. Even though we may be a bit greener than normal this year, due to the great gift of adequate late summer rains, we are definitely in the season of change. We see so much change as we journey through these next three months. The leaves of our trees will change color, the grass will cease growing at such an active pace, the days will grow shorter and the wildlife will begin to prepare for what follows after. (I am not going to print here the name of the season that follows fall, you all know what it is.) But before that season is upon us it has always been a sense of great gratitude that permeates my sense of life during these autumnal months. Perhaps this gratitude comes from my rural background and the great joy of gathering in with thanksgiving the bounty of another crop. Even when the crop is not large it is always considered bounty and one for which we give thanks.

These days, I am thankful for so much more it seems to me, and as is my habit, I try to place in my journal all the things of which I am thankful every fall. I invite you to make a list as well, it is far better to make a thankful list than to make a list of things that are wrong or upsetting in one's life. Try it; it will do your heart good, I promise.

This year my list includes, for the first time, the thankfulness of being a grandfather and the heart full of joy that has come to me in the life that is Lukas! My family continues to be a thankful spot for me and I hope for all of you as well. For me that family includes all of you and the family that we call Grace Lutheran Church in Woodstock, Illinois and the ministry in which God has called us to share. Just some of the ministry notes of thanks are listed below, believe me the list is truly much larger and all of you are on it. This year as I reviewed the new Church Directory and looked at all your smiling faces I gave thanks for each and every one of you and lifted each up in prayer. Here is a portion of my thankful list:

- ~ Mistletoe Magic and all the volunteers who work so hard to put together such a wonderful heart giving event.
- ~ Grace Pre-School which has obtained Full Accreditation as a premier Pre School in our area.
- ~ A dedicated Church Staff who work very hard and do such in great harmony and skill.
- ~ A confident, competent and cooperative church council.
- ~ The youth of our congregation whose very presence makes my heart smile.
- ~ Our Senior Ministry at Grace which continues each year to be a great source of fellowship and strength for so many in our community.
- ~ For good health and the ability to serve which brings happiness to me everyday.

And finally, for the Love of Jesus which guides me in all things, in all ways, and in whose name I give thanks, this season, all seasons, and for this life. Be thankful it does a body good!

WORSHIP TODAY

Sunday, September 21, 2014
Lectionary 25, Proper 20
Fifteenth Sunday after Pentecost

INTRODUCTION: Matthew narrates one of Jesus' controversial parables, in which Jesus says the reign of God is like workers who get paid the same no matter when they start. When God changes his mind about punishing Nineveh for their evil ways, Jonah is angry. Yet God is gracious and merciful, abounding in steadfast love. In baptism we receive the grace of God that is freely given to all. As Luther wrote, in the presence of God's mercy we are all beggars.

READINGS: Jonah 3:10–4:11

Psalm 145:1–8

Philippians 1:21–30

Matthew 20:1–16

Sunday, September 28, 2014
Lectionary 26, Proper 21
Sixteenth Sunday after Pentecost

INTRODUCTION: Jesus' parable about two sons who don't do what they say reveals surprises in the reign of God, such as prostitutes and tax collectors going before others into God's kingdom. In the reading from Ezekiel the people question whether the ways of the Lord are unfair; instead they are to repent and turn to the Lord. Paul urges us to look to Christ as a model of humility, looking to the interests of others above our own. Nourished by the broken bread and shared cup, we offer our lives for the sake of our needy world.

READINGS: Ezekiel 18:1–4, 25–32

Psalm 25:1–9

Philippians 2:1–13

Matthew 21:23–32

"GOD'S WORK. OUR HANDS.".....by Pastor Amanda Bergstrom

Thanks be to God for a beautiful ELCA Day of Service on Sunday, September 7. After gathering for word and sacrament in our weekend worship services, 125 people shared lunch in Luther Hall and then were sent forth to “go in peace and serve the Lord.” Thanks be to God!

Thanks be to God, for his amazing, creative, and redeeming word, and the work that God does through our hands. As 125 people gave of their time and talent on Sunday, we give thanks too for the many families who gave of their treasure through the donations of food items, salads, desserts, school supplies, and financial offerings. Thank you to all of the team leaders, the Evangelism Committee for their planning, and Rebecca Stiemke’s work through Volunteer McHenry County in connecting us with many of the volunteer sites.

It is a joy to serve with you as we gather as a community for the greater community. In hearing stories from the various sites, I have heard how hard people worked, how well teams worked together, and how good it was to serve at each of the sites. Teams of 6-40 people gathered to serve at the following places in our community: Grace’s kitchen- to feed the whole group, Lutheran World Relief & Golden Diner- to pack 100 school kits and make cards for homebound seniors, the City of Woodstock- to paint park entrance signs, McHenry County EMA- to clean response trailers, McHenry County Historical Society- to dust and clean, a NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Illness) Group Home- to do yard work and clean, the PADS Emergency Shelter- for a deep cleaning of facilities, and Turning Point- for yard work and sorting donations.

God has surely worked through our hands this past week, and God certainly continues to work through us each day. I pray that this day of service might kindle in us a more fervent love of God and neighbor. Thank you for sharing of your time, talent, and treasure; and thank you for the continued and new ways you join in sharing God’s grace in love and service.

Heavily tattooed and no holds barred, Nadia, sure as hell didn't consider herself to be religious leader material—until the day she ended up leading a friend's funeral in a smoky downtown comedy club. Surrounded by fellow alcoholics, depressives, and cynics, she realized: These were her people. Maybe she was meant to be their pastor. Nadia brings her message of acceptance of all people and how to be real and relevant as people of faith.

THANK YOU—To the Pastors, Congregation, and Staff of Grace Lutheran Church: The girls (now young women) and leaders of Girl Scout Troop 1306 offer our sincere gratitude and appreciation for your constant support of our Troop and activities over the past 12 years. Our Troop has been blessed by the many ways Grace Lutheran Church has been our generous partner. You have provided a safe and peaceful home for our meetings. You have served as our “base of operations” and supported us in our activities, great and small, that ranged from community-wide dances to Troop sleepovers. You continually and faithfully supported our fundraising activities such as the annual Easter Egg Hunt. Some of you graciously volunteered to work with our Troop on specific activities. And many of you unselfishly sacrificed dietary commitments as reliable customers for our cookies. Those young girls (several of whom are members of the Congregation of Grace Lutheran) are 12 years older now and their time as rostered Girl Scouts has come to an end. Their aspirations and interests are varied. Some are starting careers. Some will continue as college students beginning this fall. Some will remain in Woodstock. Some will be leaving for places near and far. But there is a commonality among these young women. All will continue to develop into, and serve as, active and productive members of their communities in great part as a result of the kindnesses extended to Troop 1306 by all of you.

With sincere thanks,
Nancy Kreznor, Leader, Girl Scout Troop 1306

MISTLETOE MAGIC BAKE SALE—Mistletoe Magic Boutique is coming Nov. 1. Now is the time to set aside your canned or frozen fruit to be used for the bake sale. Fruit pies, cobblers, muffins, etc., are always popular at the sale. Pull out some of those special dessert recipes and plan to donate some delicious goodies. Thank you! Watch for more information. Questions? Call Marylee Steinwehe at 815-338-7323.

MISTLETOE MAGIC GUEST ARTISTS—Do you know of someone who has artistic talent that is not a member of Grace. The past several years we have included other artists in the community who have donated a piece of their art to Mistletoe Magic. The circle of giving to MMagic, and then back into the community is ever expanded by including others to participate. In the past Jill Witty, Tom Trausch, and many people from Material Things and others have helped us by making donations of their art. Questions, please contact Cathy Meyer, Karen Reinhard, Judy Reilly or Sue Aavang. Thanks!

“SHARE THE BOUNTY”— Sunday’s there will be a table in the front courtyard. If you have extra plants or produce to share please place your items on the table. If you can use any of the items, please feel welcome to take them home. It’s all about “Sharing” God’s Grace.
