Parents are needed to help get these musicians to church on time and to aid them in keeping their commitments for attendance and preparation. In what other ways would you be willing to help?

Parent's Agreement: I am willing to have pictures that include my child used in church projections and publicity, including the Grace Website and commercial newspapers and magazines through September 2018.

Services in which the choirs participate and other information are on calendars distributed or the Grace website and will be updated in notes sent home from weekly choir rehearsals.

Parents: the director selects music based on the participants that are expected to be present for the services planned. Please review the calendars provided and list rehearsal and service dates on the family calendar. If situations develop that keep your child from attending on particular dates or in general, please let the director know at once. Your musician counts! Thank you for enabling he or she to have a place in our choir!
